

ALBERTA COWBOY POETRY
ASSOCIATION

Honouring the History & Tradition of the West in Cowboy Poetry and
Western Music

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

The Alberta Cowboy Poetry Association was established in 1987 to promote Cowboy poetry and Western music and songs. The ACPA is comprised of poets, musicians and fans who embrace western values and the cowboy way of life. The ACPA draws its membership from all the Western Provinces and several U.S. States.

Members are entitled to regular issues of the Barbwire Dispatch, the official newsletter of the ACPA. Performing members can be featured on our website and offer their Books and CD's for sale while enjoying greater opportunities to perform and present their work. Everyone benefits from the camaraderie at gatherings and events.

To apply to join the membership of the Alberta Cowboy Poetry Association. Potential performers will be considered by the Executive.
